

Ethos is Here to Stay !

A Handbook of Printed and Electronic Resources to Help All Schools Develop a More Positive Ethos

Produced by:
the Scottish Schools Ethos Network team
Kate Betney, Alison Closs, Meg Cowie, Andrew Mellor,
Gina Reddie and Elise Shaw

Designed by:
Gina Reddie

Edited by:
Alison Closs and Meg Cowie

Cover:
The cover illustration, by a pupil of Allan's Primary School in Stirling, depicts a Buddy Scheme of P7 volunteer pupils helping P1 and other new pupils settle in to school life.

Published by the Scottish Schools Ethos Network.
Readers are free to photocopy this publication for their own use.
First Published in July 2005

ISBN:0-9538660-2-5

Additional copies are available on request from:
Anti-Bullying Network
University of Edinburgh
Moray House School of Education
Holyrood Road
Edinburgh
EH8 8AQ

CONTENTS

Why a resource handbook for developing a more positive school ethos?	1
What are the handbook's contents and how is it structured?	2
Section 1 Interpersonal relationships, emotional awareness and communication	4
Section 2 Leadership, participation and responsiveness (across the school's community)	7
Section 3 Positive approaches to behaviour	10
Section 4 Physical factors – the school environment	12
Section 5 Valuing and enabling diversity in community members and in achievements	15
Section 6 Evaluating schools' ethos	18
Publishers' Websites	19
The Scottish Schools Ethos Network	20

"We all really like our school." From Case Study 39, Sgoil Nan Loch/Lochs School, Isle of Lewis, February 2004.